Dear Sir;

I am sorry it took me so long to get this to you. I sort of have to sandwich my history in between the Cub Scouts and the ATA.

I would like to trade this to you for the names of the parents of Jane Post - and the name of the wife of Asa Doble.
Did he come directly from Oxford or was he a Loyalist from the U.S?

Do you have the parentage of Lucinda Simpson, born about 1800?

Most sincerely yours,

The family story is that 3 brothers left Scotland. When arriving in this country, they were overtaken by a British ship intent on pressing sailors. The three jumped over board, and one was drowned, the other 2 reaching shore safely. The presence of 2 Joshua Andersons in 1811 would indicate that John and his brother both came to Fredricksburgh. The above mentioned Robert could be brother instead of son of John.

Mrs. Elaine Kelty,

Temple City, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Kelty:

I have your letter dated 17 May last, including additional information relative to the Percy Family.

The information that I supplied you about the war service of John Percy, or Piercy, came from vol. 161 and vol. 162 of the Haldimand Papers in the Public Archives of Canada, Ottawa, Ont. In the former vol. the name is spelled Percy and in the latter Percey. I very much doubt if you will find the name of John Anderson in these papers, for these reasons

1. I have been through them and would most likely have noted the name since I am interested in it.
2. A John Anderson, whom I believe to have settled in Fredericksburgh, made application for land in the Midland District (the one in which Fredericksburgh is located), asking land for himself and family as a military claimant and stating service in the Royal Artillery under General Phillips. Also that he had fled to Nova Scotia, not coming to Ontario until 1795.

It is very probable that John Percy was descended from the family of the Earls of Percy & Dukes of Northumberland. I, however, have nothing on that line. As far as I know, nothing further is known of John Percy except what I have sent you. The Haldimand Papers show that a Daniel Piercy joined a Loyalist Regiment, the Queen's Loyal Rangers, recruited largely in Vermont, in the summer of 1777, but was discharged for one reason or another between 25 June and 22 August, 1777. This regiment was badly decimated at the Battle of Bennington and was split up shortly after. A volume of Documentary History of the State of New York (Albany, N.Y.) State, dealing with the New Hampshire Grants (now Vermont) mentions a Daniel Perce. In Nov., 1766 he signed a petition, dated New England, regarding these Grants. About the same time he signed a document, giving Power of Attorney to certain other partners to act for him. These are likely one and the same person, and likely he was discharged because he was unfit to fight, being too old. By the same token he came from New England and was perhaps the father of John Percy, the Loyalist. The only other mention of persons by this name in U.S. of Revolutionary period were those I must have referred to before, previous letter

I know nothing of Lucy Shaw, aged 71, living with Thomas & Hannah Anderson. It is possible that she was related to the Andersons, certainly it is not a Percy name.

There might be some mention of Percys in the New England Genealogical register or some such work. If such are available to you, take a good look. We do not have these things in Canada, and if you find something, let me know.

Yours sincerely,

CHAPTER XLVI.

ANDERSON.

JUST before the war there settled in New Jersey a Scotch family of the name of Anderson. On the declaration of the hostilities they declared themselves on the side of the King, and enrolled themselves in the New Jersey volunteers. One of the family, Walter, rose to the rank of captain. His true British bravery, his sharp wit and clever repartee commanded the admiration and respect of the men of his company. He had an extraordinarily versatile nature, and at night around the camp-fire he was the popular entertainer, spinning off by the hour romantic stories with exceedingly dramatic execution.

About the close of the war he was one of the Loyalists who took refuge in Ward's blockhouse on Long Island. In that place they were besieged by the Americans; but, before a surrender was made, he and a comrade named Henry Bush, escaped by night across the ice to the mainland of Connecticut. In this State they were, however, in exceedingly dangerous territory, for Captain Anderson was one of the persons who were designated by name, and in a certain posted order were required by the Executive Council to surrender themselves to some judge of a court or justice of the peace within a specified time and abide trial for treason, or, in default of appearance, to stand attainted.

It is needless to say that these men were very far from trusting themselves to the tender mercies of the Executive Council of Connecticut, and a plan of escape was soon concocted in the fertile brain of Anderson. They assumed the rôle of a pair of itinerant evangelists, a Moody and Sankey, or Crossley and Hunter, of the last century. It seems that Bush could sing very acceptably. His rich, melodious voice would ring out in sonorous tones over the rows of New Englanders in the log meeting-houses in such affecting strains as :

"We'll drive the devil around a stump,
We're marching on to glory ;
And hit him a thump at every jump,
We're on our journey home."

Nor was Anderson less talented on his side. Clothed in a rusty black coat reaching to his knees, his beard shaved off, with the exception of a most sanctimonious-looking pair of side whiskers, his shoulders bowed beneath the burden of the woes of wretched humanity or the ponderous Bible which he carried so carefully under his arm, with a voice tremulous with emotion he would plead with the people to accept the offer of salvation. Anon, in firmer tones, he would relate such familiar tales as that of the good Samaritan or the rich man and Lazarus, and draw moral lessons therefrom. As he proceeded, we are told that he would work himself into a paroxysm of rage as, on the basis of: "Woe unto thee Chorazin, woe unto thee Bethsaida," he would proclaim the vengeance of a justly angry God on account of the wickedness of the country in general, and the ill-fated remnant of Loyalist English in particular, and the barbarous atrocities of the Six Nation Indians at Wyoming. His eyes would glow, his mouth quiver, his heart throb, his breast heave, and his finger-nails dig into the palms of his hand, as in a fervor of religious frenzy he prayed high heaven to send the red archangel with the two-edged sword of flame to separate the sheep from the goats, and the dire deceivers from those that were true.

Thus they held one meeting each day at early candle-lighting in all the school-houses and chapels in a comparatively straight line between the southern and northern boundaries of the State. Once safely out of Connecticut, they struck with unclerical haste for the military high road, which ran along the west shore of Lake Champlain. In a flat-bottomed boat they rowed themselves the whole length of the Upper St. Lawrence and of Lake Ontario, and settled in the Niagara district.

Captain Anderson's family made their way to him as soon as possible, and for about thirteen years they lived in the County of Lincoln. In 1799 they moved to the Long Point settlement, having received land in Charlotteville.

The old Captain died from injuries received by falling from a roof in 1810. "Full of years and honors" he passed away, leaving to his five sons and two daughters a name to be respected and honored as long as the lamp of patriotism sheds light on the deeds of men.

Notification Final Extension Permit to Remain Has Expired

ATHENS, March 3—(CP) — The Foreign Minister today notified the Minister of the Interior that Samuel Insull Sr., former Chicago Utilities operator, must leave Greece.

The notification said that the final extension of Insull's permit to remain in the country has expired.

Insull previously had gained repeated extensions of the permit by which he remained in Greece secure from United States Government authorities who sought his extradition to face trial on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny in connection with the collapse of his Middle Western Utilities organization.

Whether Insull will go to the United States was not immediately certain. He merely is expelled from Greece and now may go to whatever

Wedded 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, honored residents of the Township of Richmond, who are at present in the west where they have been spending the winter, will on Monday March 5th, observe their golden wedding anniversary and their many friends throughout this district extend congratulations and wish for them many more years of wedded life. Both are enjoying excellent health and expect to return to their home this month.

Mrs. Anderson before her marriage, was Miss Fairbairn, and they have a family of five, Will in Detroit; Mrs. Herbert Windover of Selby; Mrs. (Rev.) Duff Wartman, Mrs. Frank Hall and Mrs. Clayton Richardson, the latter residing in Winnipeg. Mr. Anderson has for many years been one of the most prominent residents of Richmond, and has taken a great interest in municipal and political affairs. He was Reeve of Richmond on a number of occasions and thus represented his township at the County Council. Mar. 3, 1934

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are also much interested in church and Sunday School work, the former having been superintendent of the Selby Sunday School. They are members of the Selby United Church where they have rendered faithful services.

The Late Miss Lucy J. Anderson

Miss Lucy Jane Anderson, another of Napanee's oldest residents, passed away in her 91st year, on Friday, at her home, Thomas Street. Miss Anderson had been in failing health for the past year, but had been seriously ill for only the past two or three weeks.

She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John P. Anderson and was born in the Anderson district, but most of her life had been spent in Napanee.

She was one of the oldest members of Grace Church and for many years she was a devoted worker in the Sunday School and the women's organizations. Until just a short time ago, she attended the church services regularly.

She was the last member of her family and was predeceased by her sisters, the late Mrs. W.T. Gibbard, the late Mrs. J. F. Smith and her brothers, C. A. Anderson, Robert Anderson and Wilburn Anderson.

Her funeral was held at her late home on Sunday afternoon and was conducted by Rev. Dr. A. J. Wilson of Toronto, who officiated in place of Rev. C. D. McLellan of Grace Ch. who was ill. The burial took place in Riverside Cemetery.
